

MORNING APPEAL

WEDNESDAY.....SEPTEMBER 18, 1878

BODIE BULLION.

Yesterday's Bodie stage brought up five bars of bullion, three from the Bodie mine, one from the Standard and one low grade bar from some outside mine. The Bodie bars aggregated $41,505 14, making the total shipments for the month $164,350 40. The Standard bar was worth $18,947 56, making the shipments for the month from this mine $83,860 69. All of which is not bad for a camp the bottom of which "has dropped out." The Bodie mine carried over a surplus of $170,000 last month, after paying $400,000 or $8 per share in one month's dividend. This month a $3 dividend was paid on the 14th instant, leaving $20,000 in the treasury exclusive of this month's yield. There may be a "horse" in the Burgess ledge, or a band of mustangs in the Bruce, but the stockholders of the Bodie thus far have no reason to complain.

THE BURGLARY CASE.

Yesterday afternoon William Wilson, charged with burglary for entering the residence of Wm. Farrell and purloining therefrom certain articles of value, was brought up before Judge Witherell for preliminary examination, which the defendant waived. He was then returned to the county jail with bail fixed at $1,000, which he was unable to furnish. The State witnesses, who are well known citizens, were charged to appear at the trial, which comes off at the next term of the District Court. Wilson is rather an intelligent looking fellow, about thirty years of age. He hails from Butte County, California, where he has been confined in the jail for petty larceny. His reputation there, so far as we can learn, was at no time very enviable.

A POLITICAL SQUABBLE.—In front of the Ormsby House yesterday, two prominent Democrats, one a Bradleyite and the other an anti-Bradleyite, got into a wordy squabble accusing each other with "putting up" fabulous sums of money in purchasing votes for their respective candidates at the Democratic primaries. One went so far as to say that he could get certain men who received money for their votes make affidavits to that effect. Whether this was done or not we do not know; but we are surprised to hear that the Democracy will stoop to anything so mean. Oh, consistency, you are a queer Dick.

DEPARTURES AND ARRIVALS PER SOUTHERN STAGE.—The following passengers passed out on the Southern Stage yesterday morning: T. H. Smith, John Miller, R. D. Clark, J. R. Judge, Mrs. Lester, J. W. Stetler, Emil Hoffman, L. Willard and H. Mathews. The following passengers arrived on the stage from the south last evening: D. McLain, Dr. J. C. Hanson, M. Woodcock, D. H. Birdall, Robert Webb, F. Goodman and F. O'Leary.

THE REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.—The Republican State Convention meets at Eureka to-day. It is doubtful, however, whether anything more than an organization will be accomplished to-day. To-morrow, though, nominations will be in order, and the ticket is likely to be completed within twenty-four hours after an organization is perfected.

HAIL.—About 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon it commenced hailing with a violence not witnessed here for many years. In less than ten minutes after the commencement the ground was snow white. The little ice pellets did not remain upon the ground for any length of time however, as the temperature suddenly grew quite warm.

STOCKS.—The stock market continues as feeble as a Carson coquette, one day it encourages the wooer and the next it repels him. The market closed rather weak last evening. The news from the north end and from Bodie continue favorable. No cause but a preconcerted bear movement can be ascribed to the vacillating state of the market. So think we.

CON. VIRGINIA STOCK.—To the surprise of every body, there was an appreciation of 40 per cent. in the value of Consolidated Virginia stock yesterday, and the sales were of great magnitude. It is stated that a new strike has been made in the mine. We will not vouch for it though.

BULLION.—The following consignments of bullion were received by the Southern Stage last evening: From the Bodie mine, three bars, valued at $41,504; from the Standard mine, one bar, valued at $18,947. Total, $60,451.

GONE TO BODIE.—Mr. George W. Bryant, Melter and Refiner of the Mint, went to Bodie yesterday afternoon in a private conveyance, for the purpose of taking a look at the district and a peep into some of the mines.

HAVELY MINSTRELS.—The box sheet for the performance of the Haverly Minstrel troupe who are to appear at the Carson Opera House on the 26th instant, is now open at the store of John G. Fox.

A HOISTING ENGINE and other machinery for the Goodshaw Mining Company at Bodie, arrived here from San Francisco yesterday morning consigned to D. W. Earl & Co.

BOARD OF EQUALIZATION.—This board has adjourned until next Monday in order to take under advisement some important matters connected with the assessment roll.

FROM BODIE.

Our friend Mr. Fred Rathbone returned from Bodie yesterday, at which place he has been sojourning for the past month or so looking at the situation. He says there is a constant influx of new people to the camp from all parts of the country, but that a great many are idle, owing to the fact that it only requires a comparative small force to work the mines there. Speaking of the business houses, all classes, are doing an excellent business. Mr. Rathbone spoke especially of our townsman, John Wagner, who is conducting a large liquor house and is just minting money. Much building is being done, and more of it would be undertaken were it not for the great scarcity of lumber. Of the hotel accommodations nothing very complimentary can be said. It is the most difficult thing in the world to get a bed, and as for provisions—the less said the better. But, then, Fred always was an epicure. The camp is full of Carson people, some doing well and others not. Of the temperature he says that it may be ever so hot in the day, in mid-summer, at night, it will commence to freeze as soon as the sun disappears behind the hills. Our informant further adds that, in the event of another development similar to that of the Bodie mine between now and the coming spring, Bodie will be one of the liveliest camps next year ever seen on this coast. A. C. May (Charley) is at Aurora, engaged in business, but is completely crippled with rheumatism, from which he has been suffering for over a year. Sorry to hear it. Mr. Rathbone will not return to Bodie this fall.

ANOTHER SUPPOSED BURGLARIOUS ARREST.

Yesterday afternoon officer Duncan arrested another man, whose name, so far as we could ascertain, was given as John Doe, on suspicion of being complicated with William Wilson in the burglary of Sunday morning. This individual, like the rest of his ilk, is of recent arrival here, and is about twenty-five years of age. He is known to be a member of the gang spoken of in our issue of yesterday. It is to be hoped that the whole crowd will be juggled before long and consigned to their proper resting place, for a number of years at least, if they do not at once leave this town.

THE monotony of the principal boulevard of our miniature metropolis was varied last evening by the dulcet strains of a hand organ in good tune, ground by a one armed ex-French sailor; one whose beard had become gray in the service of La Belle France, and who has been compelled to seek a humble living at the end of a hand organ, in a strange country whose language is strange and unutterable to the old veteran; and should such be the reward for patriots who lose their limbs and jeopardize their lives in their struggles for the honor and perpetuity of power of their native countries? But it appears that services rendered are soon forgotten. It is true, and it is a pity.

ORNAMENTED CAKE.—In the show window of Cavanaugh's bakery there are two fruit cakes ornamented in the highest style of the confectioner's art. Whoever executed that work is certainly an artist in his line. But what is of greater interest in connection with those cakes is, we are informed, that they are intended for a wedding breakfast or lunch, shortly to come off in this city. The names of the principal persons at this entertainment we are unable to give, as we do not know them ourselves.

DOGS POISONED.—Quite a number of worthless curs have within the last few days, balanced their earthly accounts in this city and gone to the happy hunting ground created for canines in the unexplored space. The work of thinning out the ranks of the numerous worthless dogs in Carson is commendable, but it is to be hoped that the exterminators, whoever they are, will confine their labors to that class of dogs only, and make no mistake by poisoning valuable animals.

TO VOTERS OF ORMSBY COUNTY.—See that you are registered for the coming election. The registration books are now open, and Judge Witherell, our accommodating Police Magistrate, will take infinite pleasure in attending to the wants of all American citizens in this particular. Do not stand upon the order of attending to this matter, but do so at once.

THE CARSON GUARD BALL.—To our regret our duties prevented us from attending this entertainment last night; but we learn that a most delightful time was passed by the fortunate ones who participated. The gallant Guards are always successful in their enterprises, be they social or otherwise. Long may they exist and flourish.

A NEW TRAGEDY.—Sam Davis, the versatile "local" on the Virginia Chronicle, has written a tragedy, called "The Goose which Laid the Pewter Eggs," so we are told. He is now now in San Francisco attending to its publication.

MINT.—The operations of the Mint are now solely confined to the coining of the standard silver dollars, the demand for which is steadily increasing in the East.

W. H. STRICKLAND, the gentlemanly advance agent of the Haverly Minstrel troupe, was on the train last night bound for the East.

GONE BELOW.—Mr. James St. Clair, ex-Inspector of Streets, has gone to San Francisco for medical advice. He has for a long time had some trouble with his head. Trust to see him back soon in the full enjoyment of his health.

A NEW JUNGLE.—The rear part of the Ormsby House billiard room is being partitioned off to receive a tiger, who will be fought this winter during the session of the Legislature.

IN TOWN.—Conrad Wiegand, the pioneer assayer of Virginia City, and author of some very able and practical papers bearing upon the silver problem, was in the city yesterday.

FOR CANADA.—Hume and James, two sons of H. M. Yerington left on the train last night for Port Hope, Canada, where they will remain at school for two years.

CALIFORNIA STATE FAIR.—The California State Fair, held at Sacramento, opened on the 16th instant, last Monday. A large number of Carsonites will attend.

A NOVEL THING.—Charley Friend has received a new style of cigar end cutter. It is a very unique contrivance, worthy the inspection of smokers.

THERE is a great scarcity of game in the market so far this season. Will some Nimrod please explain the cause?

RETURNEE.—On yesterday morning's train Mrs. John G. Fox returned from an extended tour through Europe.

ILLNESS.—The sudden change in the temperature has been productive of considerable illness in this city.

RECOVERED.—N. M. Jellerson of the Mint, who has been very ill with cholera morbus, is again at his post.

MR. D. M. RIORDEN, business manager for Yerington & Co. at Bodie, will arrive in the city to-night.

ILL.—We regret to say that Mrs. R. M. Clarke is still very ill.

J. R. JOHNSON of Genoa, was in town yesterday.
